Job overview

The RCMJD is seeking to engage an experienced conductor or violinist to join our vibrant department. The post holder will be responsible for conducting/directing two string ensembles - the RCMJD String Orchestra and our flagship RCMJD Chamber Orchestra.

The Orchestral Programme at the RCMJD

All students at the RCMJD play in at least one orchestra. String players take part in the following ensembles every Saturday:

- Sinfonietta - for players in school years 4 - 6
- String Orchestra – for players in Years 7 - 8
- Sinfonia – for players in Years 9 - 12
- Symphony Orchestra - for players in Years 11 - 13
- Chamber Orchestra - our flag-ship string ensemble, membership of which is by invitation for our oldest and most advanced string players in Years 12 - 13

Esther King-Smith directs our Sinfonietta, Robert Hodge conducts Sinfonia and Jacques Cohen directs our Symphony Orchestra. Our orchestras perform at least twice per academic year.

It may be possible to split the role between two candidates, or to add chamber music coaching to the timetable of the successful candidate as needed.

The RCMJD String Orchestra and RCMJD Chamber Orchestra

Chris Hiron has successfully directed the RCMJD String Orchestra and Chamber Orchestra for the last 25 years. Both ensembles currently perform without a conductor, with a student directing from the violin, although these ensembles have been conducted in the past. Leaders of our orchestras often go on to lead the National Youth Orchestra, the London Schools' Symphony orchestra etc because of the extraordinary training they have received in these groups.

Moving forwards, the ensembles could be conducted, or they could continue to be led by students, under the direction of an experienced orchestral leader/violinist.

We are seeking a suitably experienced conductor or violinist to continue Chris's inspirational work. In addition to regular internal concerts, our RCMJD Chamber Orchestra has performed at the Royal Albert Hall, the Wigmore Hall and at our annual concert at Cadogan Hall. Under Chris's leadership, both ensembles have performed a very wide range of challenging repertoire, including a number of contemporary works by under-represented composers.

Key Responsibilities

These include:

1. Conduct/Direct the RCMJD String Orchestra, for string players in Years 7 - 8 every week
2. Conduct/Direct the RCMJD Chamber Orchestra, for advanced string players in Years 12 -13
3. Prepare the orchestras for RCMJD concerts (as appropriate)

About Us

The College	Opened in 1883 by the then Prince of Wales, the Royal College of Music (RCM) is a world-leading music conservatoire with a prestigious history and contemporary outlook. The RCM is a vibrant community of talented and open-minded musicians, with over 900 students from more than 60 countries studying at undergraduate, masters or doctoral level in the Senior College throughout the week and 300 students on a Saturday in the Junior Department. Former students of the RCM hold key roles in music and the arts in all parts of the world - as performers, teachers, composers, conductors and animateurs. The RCM was ranked as the global top institution for both Music and Performing Arts in the 2025 QS World University Rankings by Subject. The College has held this world-leading place in Performing Arts for four successive years, while Music is a new subject introduced to the rankings in 2024.
Staff	The RCM has over 250 members of professorial (teaching) staff and over 100 teachers in the Junior Department - the majority of whom are busy professionals with worldwide reputations, who include teaching among the various musical activities that they regularly undertake. Their work, and the work of the College as a whole, is supported by a team of over one hundred administrative staff.
Location	The RCM benefits from its particular location in South Kensington - one of the most attractive and interesting parts of central London. The area is well-served by public transport: South Kensington tube station is within ten minutes' walk; several bus routes pass the Royal Albert Hall. Kensington Gardens and the renowned museums of Exhibition Road, the Natural History Museum, the Victoria & Albert Museum and the Science Museum, are only a short walk away; Imperial College of Science, Technology & Medicine is next door; the Royal College of Art and the Royal Albert Hall are just across the road. The area, known originally as Albertopolis, emerged as a location for national institutions in the arts and sciences after the Great Exhibition of 1851 largely because of the enthusiasm of Prince Albert. Relationships with neighbouring institutions are friendly and supportive.

Junior Department The Royal College of Music Junior Department (RCMJD) is a specialist term-time only Saturday school offering advanced training to musicians between the ages of 8 and 18. Students combine studying at RCMJD with their general education at their chosen week-day school. Students come together at the RCM London each Saturday for a tailor-made programme of individual instrument/voice/composition lessons, chamber music, orchestral and choral training, and general musicianship. Our staff are professional performers/composers as well as teachers and offer the highest standards of tuition and coaching. Most RCMJD students continue their musical studies at the RCM or other major conservatoires/universities. More information about the RCMJD is available on the RCM website
